THE PASSION OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST
ACCORDING TO JOHN

EVANGELIST After Jesus had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples across the Kidron valley to a place where there was a garden, which he and his disciples entered. Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, because Jesus often met there with his disciples. So Judas brought a detachment of soldiers together with police from the chief priests and the Pharisees, and they came there with lanterns and torches and weapons. Then Jesus, knowing all that was to happen to him, came forward and asked them,

JESUS Whom are you looking for?

EVANGELIST They answered,

SOLDIERS Jesus of Nazareth.

EVANGELIST Jesus replied,

JESUS I am he.

EVANGELIST Judas, who betrayed him, was standing with them. When Jesus said to them, "I am he," they stepped back and fell to the ground. Again he asked them,

JESUS Whom are you looking for?

EVANGELIST And they said,

SOLDIERS Jesus of Nazareth.

EVANGELIST Jesus answered,

JESUS I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these men go.

- EVANGELIST This was to fulfill the word that he had spoken,
JESUS I did not lose a single one of those whom you gave me.
- EVANGELIST Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus. Jesus said to Peter, JESUS Put your sword back into its sheath. Am I not to drink the cup that the Father has given me?
- EVANGELIST So the soldiers, their officer, and the Jewish police arrested Jesus and bound him. First they took him to Annas, who was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, the high priest that year. Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that it was better to have one person die for the people. Simon Peter and another disciple followed Jesus. Since that disciple was known to the high priest, he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, but Peter was standing outside at the gate. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out, spoke to the woman who guarded the gate, and brought Peter in. The woman said to Peter,
WOMAN You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?
EVANGELIST He said,
PETER I am not.
EVANGELIST Now the slaves and the police had made a charcoal fire because it was cold, and they were standing around it and warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself. Then the high priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. Jesus answered,

- JESUS I have spoken openly to the world; I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all the Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret. Why do you ask me? Ask those who heard what I said to them; they know what I said.
- EVANGELIST When he had said this, one of the police standing nearby struck Jesus on the face, saying,
- POLICEMAN Is that how you answer the high priest?
- EVANGELIST Jesus answered,
- JESUS If I have spoken wrongly, testify to the wrong. But if I have spoken rightly, why do you strike me?
- EVANGELIST Then Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest. Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They asked him,
- BYSTANDER You are not also one of his disciples, are you?
- EVANGELIST He denied it and said,
- PETER I am not.
- EVANGELIST One of the slaves of the high priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked,
- SLAVE Did I not see you in the garden with him?
- EVANGELIST Again Peter denied it, and at that moment the cock crowed. Then they took Jesus from Caiaphas to Pilate's headquarters. It was early in the morning.

They themselves did not enter the headquarters, so as to avoid ritual defilement and to be able to eat the Passover. So Pilate went out to them and said,

PILATE What accusation do you bring against this man?

EVANGELIST They answered,

CAIAPHAS/ANNAS If this man were not a criminal, we would not have handed him over to you.

EVANGELIST Pilate said to them,

PILATE Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law.

EVANGELIST The Jews replied,

CAIAPHAS/ANNAS We are not permitted to put anyone to death.

EVANGELIST This was to fulfill what Jesus had said when he indicated the kind of death he was to die. Then Pilate entered the headquarters again, summoned Jesus, and asked him,

PILATE Are you the King of the Jews?

EVANGELIST Jesus answered,

JESUS Do you ask this on your own, or did others tell you about me?

EVANGELIST Pilate replied,

PILATE I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests have handed you over to me. What have you done?

EVANGELIST Jesus answered,

JESUS My kingdom is not from this world. If my kingdom were from this world, my followers would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not from here.

EVANGELIST Pilate asked him,
PILATE So you are a king?
EVANGELIST Jesus answered,
JESUS You say that I am a king. For this I was born, and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.

EVANGELIST Pilate asked him,
PILATE What is truth?
EVANGELIST After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them,
PILATE I find no case against him. But you have a custom that I release someone for you at the Passover. Do you want me to release for you the King of the Jews?

EVANGELIST They shouted in reply,
CROWD Not this man, but Barabbas!
EVANGELIST Now Barabbas was a bandit. Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged. And the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they dressed him in a purple robe. They kept coming up to him, saying,
SOLDIERS Hail, King of the Jews!

EVANGELIST and striking him on the face. Pilate went out again and said to them,

PILATE Look, I am bringing him out to you to let you know that I find no case against him.

EVANGELIST So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them,

PILATE Here is the man!

EVANGELIST When the chief priests and the police saw him, they shouted,

CAIAPHAS/ANNAS
SOLDIERS/POLICE Crucify him! Crucify him!

EVANGELIST Pilate said to them,

PILATE Take him yourselves and crucify him; I find no case against him.

EVANGELIST The Jews answered him,

CAIAPHAS/ANNAS We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has claimed to be the Son of God.

EVANGELIST Now when Pilate heard this, he was more afraid than ever. He entered his headquarters again and asked Jesus,

PILATE Where are you from?

EVANGELIST But Jesus gave him no answer. Pilate therefore said to him,

PILATE Do you refuse to speak to me? Do you not know that I have power to release you, and power to crucify you?

EVANGELIST Jesus answered him,

JESUS You would have no power over me unless it had been given you from above; therefore the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.

EVANGELIST From then on Pilate tried to release him, but the Jews cried out, CAIAPHAS/ANNAS If you release this man, you are no friend of the emperor. Everyone who claims to be a king sets himself against the emperor.

EVANGELIST When Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus outside and sat on the judge's bench at a place called The Stone Pavement, or in Hebrew Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation for the Passover; and it was about noon. He said to the Jews,

PILATE Here is your King!

EVANGELIST They cried out,

CROWD Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!

EVANGELIST Pilate asked them,

PILATE Shall I crucify your King?

EVANGELIST The chief priests answered,

CAIAPHAS/ANNAS We have no king but the emperor.

EVANGELIST Then he handed him over to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus; and carrying the cross by himself, he went out to what is called The Place of the Skull, which in Hebrew is called Golgotha.

Please stand.

EVANGELIST There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, with Jesus between them. Pilate also had an inscription written and put on the cross. It read, “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.” Many of the Jews read this inscription, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate,

CAIAPHAS/ANNAS Do not write, “The King of the Jews,” but, “This man said, I am King of the Jews.”

EVANGELIST Pilate answered,

PILATE What I have written I have written.

EVANGELIST When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier. They also took his tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven in one piece from the top. So they said to one another,

SOLDIERS Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see who will get it.

EVANGELIST This was to fulfill what the scripture says, “They divided my clothes among themselves, and for my clothing they cast lots.” And that is what the soldiers did. Meanwhile, standing near the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother’s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing beside her, he said to his mother,

 JESUS Woman, here is your son.
 EVANGELIST Then he said to the disciple,
 JESUS Here is your mother.
 EVANGELIST And from that hour the disciple took her into his own home. After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said (in order to fulfill the scripture),
 JESUS I am thirsty.
 EVANGELIST A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hys-sop and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the wine, he said,
 JESUS It is finished.
 EVANGELIST Then he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.
Pause in silence.
 EVANGELIST Since it was the day of Preparation, the Jews did not want the bodies left on the cross during the sabbath, especially because that sabbath was a day of great solemnity. So they asked Pilate to have the legs of the crucified men broken and the bodies removed. Then the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. Instead, one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once blood and water came out. (He who saw this has testified so that you also may believe. His testimony is true, and he knows that he tells the truth.) These things occurred so that the scripture might be fulfilled, “None of his bones shall be broken.” And again another passage of scripture says, “They will look on the one whom they have pierced.”

After these things, Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, though a secret one because of his fear of the Jews, asked Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus. Pilate gave him permission; so he came and removed his body. Nicodemus, who had at first come to Jesus by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, weighing about a hundred pounds. They took the body of Jesus and wrapped it with the spices in linen cloths, according to the burial custom of the Jews. Now there was a garden in the place where he was crucified, and in the garden there was a new tomb in which no one had ever been laid. And so, because it was the Jewish day of Preparation, and the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.
